Description

Eyes-ie is a super great minded barrel horse. This would be the perfect horse to build confidence in a timid, nervous, or youth rider. He has just been lightly hauled, and not being seasoned, he has consistently casually clocking in the 3D, and has room to step up from there. He spent most of this year turned out, due to owner's situation, and he is ready for his next partner. He just had his teeth done, shots, is in the show barn, just shod, and will be being legged up and hauled until sold. He is a sweetheart, and so fun to have around, never any nonsense with this one, just a joy to have around. He has also been used for drill team, parades, and has been taken through the poles. This guy is super broke and just fun to have around, he is my go-to trail riding horse to relax and go out with all the girl and have a good time, or to bring along for a less experienced rider to relax and be safe on. He is super smooth, goes around on a loose rein, flexes and counter flexes, lots of bend and feel off of your leg. He is that nice easy balance, willingly forward, but not at all hot...but don't feel like you couldn't get a thing done without spurs on either. Very easy, fun, pleasant ride, Lots of rate, 3 balanced gaits, and nice whoa. He is very solid and consistent on the pattern, and as HONEST AS THEY COME. Even fresh out of the pasture, out of shape, and no tuning...he high-lobed through the pattern with no bridle. Call for more information...I could go on-and-on, and write 3 paragraphs about this one... Don't miss him, price subject to increase as we get him legged up and currently clocking.
