Simba is a solid, been-there, done-that, seen-that, using horse. He was originally started and trained as a cutter, and since then has been a deluxe turn-back horse, and babysitter horse for the wife, grandkids, grandma, guests to the ranch that have never ridden...and everyone in between. This guy's manners, miles, and solid disposition is price-less. He is the kind that everyone needs at least one of on their place. He has been here a while, and he is the one we can catch anywhere, and throw anyone up on, in the arena, to turn back on, or to tag along to check horses, cattle, fences, or to go trail riding on. He is broke to death, smooth, goes around one-handed on a loose rein, and has a "whoa" anywhere, anytime that you mention in to him. In no hurry to go anywhere, but not so lazy that he is frustrating for a weaker, more-timid, or older or smaller rider to ride. This guy is solid, quiet, and goes absolutely anywhere you point him with his head low, relaxed, and with absolutely no nonsense, no argument, no fuss. Do not miss this one, wish we have 10 of him standing around, and he comes GORGEOUS, black and white, fancy moving, and pretty headed! These are hard to find!
