Description

This gelding is one of the top 3 broke-est, most all-around talented, most versatile, and most honest geldings I have ever rode. Can not say a thing bad about this one. All day when we did his video, he only had a bridle on when my 5 year old was riding him. He is EXTREMELY correctly and slowly patterned on the barrels, as perfect as you could make one. If you are looking for something to teach you how to ride, you can't find a better mentor, teacher, or trainer in the world then this horse. He is broke absolutely everywhere in his body. He has taught me personally, and my little tiny daughter has learned some things that no other horse has been able to show her how to do. If you do not understand how valuable this horse is, to have had this many miles, and be this proven, this solid, and still extremely sound...please do not call!!! We have had a hard time even putting a price tag on this one, if you do not see what an exceptional animal this is...there are lots of others out there to buy!
