Description

"Airplane" is the barn favorite right now! The kids have been on spring break, and this little guy has been caught and rode several times a day!!! He was raised and trained by a couple of young boys, and he is really broke for a small pony! He actually rides around!!! He does some cool tricks, lays down on command, kneels, and even sits and stays!!! He rides around one handed, on a loose rein, walks, trots, neck reins, and will even lope! He rides great out with others, very willing to go out alone, happy riding in a pen, no mean tricks about the barn or gate, very willing and easy! Super lead line pony, that the kids can move up to riding independently. He moves out willingly, but is not hot/chargey/forward either! Good stop, great on the ground, easy to saddle, bridle, and pick feet. He hops right in the trailer, will stand tied all day long, and is happy in the box stall, or kept turned out with anyone. Good feet and legs, good backed, easy keeper. These solid, quiet, good minded smaller ponies are so hard to find!
