SOLD SOLD Paint Mare, 5 yrs old, not registered, sorrell (overo). Molly is a sweet horse, blaze face, stockings on hind quarters and stands about 14 hands high. She weighs approximately 850 pounds. Beautiful mane and tail. She is trained under saddle, loads, stands to be tacked and mounted. Does not neck rein. She is currant on deworming and hoof care. Coggis test; 31 JUL 2019. rides with a snaffle bit or hackamore. saddle or bare back. Very good with Vet and farrier, easy to catch and halter. gentle, loves attention and grooming. No known bad habits, no kick, buck, bite or rear. She has no known health issues. I rate her temperament to be between a 1 and 2 on a scale of 1 to 10. She is curious about deer and wild turkeys. Farm equipment, farm animals and ATVs do not bother her. Molly is not a dominant horse and is not food aggressive. At pesent she is barefooted.

If you are looking for a "sports" horse, Molly is NOT your girl. In my opinion, she is best suited for a beginner rider because she is so laidback, being the only horse would suit her fine with a burro for a pasture mate. As an easy keeper, care is needed that she does not become overweight. My reason for rehoming is that Molly is not ridden as much as she should be to burn calories plus she is not my primary rideing horse.
