Blurr is a 15 year old gelding who stands at 15.3hh. This boy has been my best friend for the past three and a half years. I rode him at play days, OHSET, and other events. He's done all the gaming events, sorting, team penning, trail riding, and has messed around with showmanship and a few others. This horse is easy going, though does like to run. I wouldn't recommend him for a beginner due to he will buck every now and then if he's too excited or if the saddle is bothering him. Only reason I'm selling is because I'm in college and don't have the time for him. He's a great horse who shouldn't just sit. I won't ride him for a few weeks but can confidently jump on and ride him till he sweats without a problem. The only cons is he HATES flags. This is not a drill horse. He will buck and freak out if he see's a drill team. Though I am able to carry a flag while on him, but only if it's just him carrying one. If you'd like more info or would like to come see him please feel free to message me!
