Danilo is a 9 year gelding with ANCCE registration papers. He is a handsome and smart boy. He has a great foundation and is well rounded. He is very confident with a calm demeanor. He's an excellent trail horse and has everything needed to be a perfect dressage project with the proper training. He loads and hauls well into trailer and doesn't get easily spooked. I recently started my own business and just don't have the time needed to care for him. Danilo would make a great addition to your family!
