Fergie is a 9 year old registered quarter horse mare. Shes big stout and stands 15.3 hands tall. She used to be a 1-2 D barrel racing horse but an injury to her ankle caused an early retirement. Vet said she's a grade 1.5 lameness on ankle. She's broodmare trail sound only. If she's going on a long trail ride with a lot of hills vet recommended to give previcox. We trail rode her all last year with no issues. She's had a lot of trail riding experience in her day. She's been Shawnee and big piney. Along with a lot of the smaller trails closer to home. I wouldn't recommend her for beginner or inexperienced rider because she is powerful and quick. She's up to date on farrier coggins and vaccines. Price is in pictures. Pm for more information.
