Green Broke Handsome Gaited Trail gelding. Looking to find him a new home. Very well mannered just needs some work and an confident intermediate or an experienced rider to bring out the best potential in him. He's my baby and its very hard to sell him. I haven't bonded with a horse since forever and I bonded with him but I am selling him due to me not having enough time for this wonderful gelding. Rides both english and western. Was ridden mainly western but started him english the end of last summer and hasn't been worked with much during middle to end of winter but very trying slowly bringing him back into work.
