The Thrilla CoreTX is a new four-strand nylon rope by Cactus Ropes. Each rope utilizes a core foundation around which the four outer strands are twisted yielding more durability and life to the outer strands which reduces fuzzing and fraying. The Thrilla extends its longevity and strength by eliminating added dyes, they are colored 100% by the core. Cactus added a little more weight to the core strand, producing more tip weight for a smaller diameter rope. This rope is smaller and quicker and still keeps that added tip weight and durability the Cactus' CoreTX ropes possess. If you like that less rope feel and still need to maintain constant tip control, pick up Thrilla Team Ropes by Cactus Ropes today.
