Description

*Description

At HR Saddles & Tack, they handcraft beautiful saddles with high quality leather, deep hand tooling, and great hardware. They regularly build custom saddles to dealer's specifications so they can support their retail customers. They also offer a large inventory of basic saddles, all hand tooled in common geometric patterns with various borders. We can custom order any HR saddle to your specifications, you dream it, they can build it! There are unlimited tooling options, concho options, as well as different oils to choose from. Give us a call for pricing, time frames, or just more information on ordering a custom HR saddle.
