Sailor Boy 15 yr old 15.3 hh chestnut TB gelding

Sailor would make a great partner for an intermediate rider looking to advance in dressage or hunt seat. He has shown through first level receiving many champion ribbons with students at local schooling shows. Easy to sit. He is an easy keeper and up to date on shots, coggins and dental. He wears regular front shoes. Stands, ties, easy to load. Can be reactive as he is sensitive and on spooky side but calms down in a regular program. Sailor enjoys trails and road rides. Has been used in lessons with advanced riders and when in consistent work, a lunge line horse for smaller riders. I've been back and fourth between listing him and pulling down his ad as he has been my buddy for a very long time but I have too many client horses in training and he needs to have a regular job again. I've had him since he was 3 years old but its not fair to keeping him sitting as he loves to have a job and deserves his own person.

Perfect home a must!!
