Description

Hope is a great little registered Appaloosa mare. She was purchased in 2015 to be a project horse for 4-H and ranch horse shows. She would be a great little project to work with over the fall and winter and be ready to show next spring! We competed at the state level for four years and received top ten awards in Showmanship and Western Riding. She has also been to a couple ranch horse shows and did well. I recently graduated from college and am looking to re-home this mare. She has not been ridden consistently for about 4 years. She would need a tune up to get back into shape and be able to show, but when I have ridden her she does seem to remember everything. Would be best for an intermediate rider. She would be well suited for trail riding or ranch horse shows. She needs a job to do and doesn't like to be ridden in an arena all the time. She is pretty athletic and would be super fun for someone looking for a bit of a tune up project and be competitive with showing. AMAZING jog and very handy. I had a lot of fun working with this mare while I was in high school and have taken her a lot of places. She is super sweet with kids on the ground. Let me know if you have any more questions. Thanks for looking!
